Students are required to maintain good academic standing. This includes, but is not limited to:
Good Academic Standing:
<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Maintaining consistent contact with their advisor</li> <li>2. Maintaining a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of at least 3.0</li> <li>3. Holding no more than one mark of Incomplete at any given time.</li> </ol>
Good Administrative Standing:
Students are expected to remain in compliance with all applicable administrative policies and procedures of the university, including those of the Columbia Libraries , University Apartment Housing , and the Office of Student Conduct and Community Standards , as well as the regulations described in Essential Policies for the Columbia Community .
Good Academic Progress:
The Graduate School considers progress toward the MA degree to be minimally satisfactory when progress is made at a rate that will allow a student to complete the degree within four consecutive terms of full-time study, students in that program must complete the degree within eight consecutive terms of full-time study. Students will be evaluated annually to ensure that they are progressing at a pace that will allow them to complete their degree within the maximum time frame. This evaluation will be based on the number of credits that a student has completed of those attempted.
Students must also maintain a minimum cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0. The cumulative GPA is derived from all courses in which a student has registered and received a grade. Students may not hold more than one mark of Incomplete at a time.
Master's students in the programs listed below may, over a four-year period , pursue a program of part-time study leading to the MA degree. The half and quarter Residence Units are designed to accommodate part-time students in these programs. Students enrolled in these programs may register for half and quarter Residence Unit registration categories during the summer. For further information, see Summer Session .
